It gives me great pleasure to write the letter of recommendation for Ms. Chetna (University Roll no. 17110011089), B.Sc. (Non-Medical) Session 2017-2020. I have assessed her analytical skills, problems solving ability and academic strength during this period. Chetna is a very hard-working student. She has a good academic record and her pragmatic approach to every problem makes an intellectual strong personality. Her punctuality and sincerity in completing any assignment on time gives a competitive edge over her classmates.

Chetna was an expert in giving class presentation, as she has good communication skills. Her cogent and lucid presentations were praise worthy. Being self-motivated and a person with a strong moral character, she also participated in co-curricular activities like seminars and sports.

Her warm nature towards her peers is admirable. Chetna has the strength of character and intellectual capacity that makes her the right person to pursue the course. I rank Chetna as a fit candidate for pursuing her study at any Institution. I am confident that she will meet all the academic standards and will develop as an individual with an impressive personality.
