   Answer: SENIOR SECONDARY

EUROPEAN UNION DATA PROTECTION

* 1. Are you currently located in a European Union country, Iceland, Lichtenstein, Norway, or Switzerland?

   Answer: No

CAASPP RESULTS RELEASE STATEMENT

* 1. I hereby authorize the California Department of Education to release my California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP) score report to the California State University for the purpose of credit, placement, or determination of readiness for college-level coursework.

   Answer: I did not attend High School in California, or did not complete the CAASPP assessment

RELEASE OF CONTACT INFORMATION

1. I authorize the California State University to release my contact information to one or more CSU campuses and/or affiliates that may wish to contact me before and/or after I have submitted my application to the university.

   Answer: Check box to Acknowledge

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CERTIFICATION

* 1. In order to study in the United States as an international student, you must document that you have sufficient financial resources to complete your course of study. You must prove that you have enough funds to cover all the costs associated with your first year of full-time study. Each CSU campus determines the typical costs for international students. This budget includes registration fees, housing, books, other living expenses and miscellaneous costs. As an international student you will need to have your financial institution provide a certification that you have at least the amount required available, or that funds are available from a reliable source. International students should not expect to work to cover the cost of their education in the United States. Federal/state financial aid is not available for international students. Campus or private scholarships may be available for international students but are not sufficient to cover all expenses.

Documentation of Financial Support for International Students

Documentation Required

As part of the application for Admissions, The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services requires that, all F-1 (Certificate of Eligibility for Non-immigrant - Form I-20) and J-1 (Certificate of eligibility for Exchange Visitor Form DS-2019) applicants provide evidence of adequate funds to meet the financial obligations of enrollment at a U.S. college/university.

If the student will use their own personal funds as the main source of financial support, the student must provide their official bank statement showing available funds. However, if the student will be supported by a private sponsor (such as a family member, friend or private institution), the sponsor must sign the Statement of Financial Obligation below or provide a letter declaring their relationship to the student and their intent to provide financial support throughout the student's duration of study at CSUSB. In either case, the sponsors must also provide an official bank statement showing available funds in liquid assets. Bank statements must be signed and/or seal by bank and not be more than 6 months old from date student applied to CSUSB.

If the student will be sponsored by a public agency (such as an embassy, home government, public institution or religious organization), the agency must provide official certification that the appropriate costs will be covered.
