TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this letter to give my highest possible recommendations for Khushpreet Kaur who was a student in Sant Isher Singh Public School, Mohali. She was a student of my Biology class for two years. With her abilities, adaptability and dedication she has not only become one of the best students of my class, but also of whole of our school.

Her class presentations and performance always have been exceptional. She has very creative mind and performed experiments in Biology lab independently and always came up with thoughtful queries.

She has very good leadership qualities and can work collaboratively. She worked well with other students and she is very personable. She has used her medical volunteer opportunity in last two summers to improve her knowledge about health care system.

On the basis of his capabilities, accomplishments, strong motivation and fine personal attributes, she certainly stands as a student of great potential. In case of any further questions regarding her I can be contacted on the given address.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this letter to give my highest possible recommendations for Khushpreet Kaur who was a student in Sant Isher Singh Public School, Mohali where I'm English teacher. She has shown exceptional qualities both in academic results and in the social life within the high school and beyond.

The first time I got the chance to know Khushpreet when she chosen the batch representative in school spirit competitions. She made all of us proud of her oratory and script writing skills. She has always been ready to spread her knowledge among class fellows and even helps juniors in making their projects.

Her undefeated efforts, combined with her work ethic and ability to self-improve, are recipes for success in the years to come. I think she would be an outstanding asset to your program.
