Shilpa Rani
GAP - 2017.

Diploma in education to MBA.

My plans were put on hold due to the responsibilities as I was unable to pursue my professional ambitions immediately due to family responsibilities, as my father was battling cancer. During this difficult period, I took on the role of managing his medical care and doctor visits, which required my full attention. Despite these challenges, I remained committed to my educational growth. I continued learning and deepened my passion for teaching by studying and offering home tutoring services and freelancing with local academies. Unfortunately, my father passed away after a prolonged and difficult period. During this challenging time, I have regained my confidence and now feel ready to pursue my professional goals. I aim to become a Corporate Training Manager, and pursuing an MBA in the USA is the first step in achieving this. I have applied for the 2025 intake
