TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It gives me great pleasure to submit this letter of recommendation for Dr. Harsimrandeep Singh who is applying to your reputed institution.

I have known Harsimran since 2017. He was a hardworking and highly disciplined student. He consistently worked on improving himself and is quite focused. He was very punctual, well behaved.

During clinics he showed admirable patience and understanding while recording patient histories, reviewing radiographs and dealt with medically compromised and oral cancer patients and implementing a treatment plan.. He performed various radiographic procedures and strictly followed precautionary measures to avoid unnecessary radiation exposure to the patient and the surroundings. Although allotted an assistant during internship, he would often take radiographs himself to broaden his knowledge. His dealing with patients is something that I really admire. He dealt with patients making them comfortable; demonstrating a great deal of empathy and concern for the patient's well being.

Other than his excellent professionalism, he has a very good moral character, enabling him to get along very well with his teachers, colleagues, patients, and other staff in college I believe he has a promising career as a dentist and I would recommend this hardworking and deserving student of mine for education at your prestigious institution. TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

It gives me immense pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Dr. Harsimrandeep Singh whom I have known since September 2017, as an undergraduate, Intern and then as Demonstrator.

It was a great experience to teach him. As an intern he has performed various conservative & endodontic procedures including silver amalgam and tooth colored restorations and root canal therapy, simple and complex restorations, esthetic procedures like diastema closure and composite tooth build ups, post and core, tooth preparations for all metal and porcelain fused to metal crowns under my supervision and guidance

He is diligent, hard working and manages to effectively treat day to day clinical conditions. He has a good moral character and has always maintained a good rapport with his seniors, colleagues and patients.

He is proficient in English, both in speech and writing and is capable of taking decisions whenever encountered with any problem. During my association with him, I was able to form a good opinion of his character and conduct, and I would strongly recommend him as a young hard working dentist who will be an asset to any institution.
