

Statement of purpose

I am Harman Singh and I see that "All you need in life is belief in yourself, then success is yours." I am residing in Patiala, Punjab. I am a happy, cheerful, valuable and extroverted person. I graduated from Punjab School Board in 2015. Then in 2017, I completed high school from the same board. Then I decided to go to My Bachelors from America because American higher education understands students' needs and interests and offers them many flexible options. This allows students to explore and explore their interests. A bachelor's degree in the US can open the door to many high paying jobs. Also, as you gain experience in your field and continue to learn (for example, through certification), you can make your investment more profitable.

I chose to study in the USA because it is an important place for international higher education. There are many schools and numerous educational and professional levels. You can choose from a variety of specializations such as Accounting, Marketing, International Business, Finance and many more. It provides the opportunity to gain knowledge, insight and experience through lifelong learning. Also, one-on-one care for students through education and discussion. It is a leader in science and technology with some of the best universities in the world. The facilities and resources available to American students are superior to those in India. Another big reason is job opportunities after graduation. America's economy is strong and there are many jobs in many fields. After deciding to study in America, I researched universities and learned about Lincoln University.

I chose to study at Lincoln University because it is a non-profit university. It focuses on pragmatic learning with a positive global attitude. It has excellent business management skills in many areas of thought. They also teach students not only the content but the process of finding, analyzing and completing the application. It is recognized by the United States News & World Report Best College has been in existence for over 20 years and remains one of the top schools in California, receiving five stars in the US News & News Nature World rankings. I want to do BBA as it is a popular course these days. It increases the competitiveness of professionals and the quality and quantity of work. This course will help you become a manager in top companies because it teaches them the skills needed to give them a career. BBA graduates can apply for jobs in different fields such as retail, finance, marketing, construction. It can also be trusted by leaders in the work team, take security risks and get real feedback. There are many career options after BBA. The BBA program is always updated with new business needs. The BBA program continues for many future career opportunities. Develops students' management, banking, finance, marketing or sales skills. It will also give me an understanding of management principles and will allow me to understand the real business world. So I think it will allow me to grow personally and professionally.

After completing my undergraduate studies in the USA, I will return to my country because there will be many opportunities in various fields. There are many job opportunities after BBA.Obtaining this degree will open many doors to government as well. I believe studying at Lincoln will help me better understand the fundamentals in this area and help me acquire the skills I need to achieve my goals.

Regards

Harman Singh