Upload Materials

If you selected that you would be submitting an application fee waiver please upload your signed fee waiver form here. Your application will not be processed until this form is received.

All transcripts you upload via this status page will be considered unofficial. Unofficial documents will be used for admission decisions. However, please note official transcripts will be needed in order to complete transfer credit evaluations. Official documents will also be required upon enrollment at USA. Official documents must be mailed or sent electronically from your current college or school directly to the USA Office of Admissions.

PLEASE NOTE: Transfer students are required to supply all official documents prior to registering for classes and can only register once those official transcripts are received by the University.

We have received the following documents from you:
