5. SIMANPREET KAUR (HARVEEN) 2024 GAP

Diploma in Retail Mgt.
to Bachelor of Accounting.

After completing a diploma in Retail Management in 2024, I gained valuable insights into the operational and financial aspects of retail businesses, including inventory control, customer relationship management, and supply chain operations. As I further explored the retail industry, I became increasingly interested in the financial side of business, particularly in areas such as budgeting, cost analysis, and financial reporting. This led me to delve deeper into accounting principles, recognizing their critical role in ensuring the financial health and efficiency of retail operations. To expand my knowledge and skills, I decided to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Accounting program in the USA for the 2025 intake,
