Gap

There has been a significant shift in consumer preferences towards eco-friendly and sustainable products. This trend made me extend my research after my senior secondary when I myself involved in my family business when the trash flowers are gathered from temples and re-cycled into eco friendly products like essential oils, ~~essence sticks~~ etc. And I used to promote ~~and sell~~ them on social media platform however effective marketing of products on social media requires a strategic and consistent approach. And to understand this field in deep I decided to study business course from USA which will help me to Expand this business on large scale with a brand name. Accordingly I applied for the present intake.

Future goal

Ans. I want to flourish my family's business to an international level with a proper brand name and the business degree will definitely help me to fullfill this target. I will return back to my home nation also I plan for my masters further in the same field.

Ans. my father runs our family business

My father is a owner of recycling unit. Where he used to recycle trash flowers, plastic and many other items to eco-friendly products from which he earns 20 to 21 lakh per year, or 25,170 US dollars.
