Dear Admission Committee

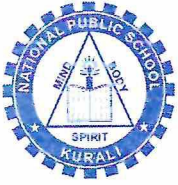

It gives me pride in writing a recommendation to endorse one of my student, Manjot Singh. My association with him delorates back to 2021 when I first got to teach him the subject of Accountancy. I feel optimistic about Manjot Singh's selection in your esteemed university as the student has potential to excel in his stream of choice.

With my careful and detailed observation, I can attest that he is a sincere and hard working student with a fabulous drive to attain his goals. He is a dedicated observer and has the requisite talent to take up any assignment in the field of study that he is zealous for. He has the ability and enthusiasm to see both on the fine-detail scale and the big picture.

I am proud to have guided him with his growth in the field and strongly endorse him to be accepted at your prestigious institution. Should you require any further assistance, feel free to contact me using the under-mentioned mail address.
