Q.1 Why not any other country?

Ans I choose to study in the United States because it offers a diverse range of academic programs, renowned universities and extensive research opportunities in my field of interest. While Canada and other countries also provides excellent education but the specific programs and resources available in the US align perfectly with my academic and career goals.

Q.2 Job Justification?

I did my M.Sc in the year 2020 after which due to Covid situation I was unable to Pursue anything further. Later when the situation got normal I started exploring the job options and I got an opportunity to work as Computer teacher in a school where I am still working. Been working there for a long time, with no professional growth. I realised to continue my studies further by adding an ~~an~~ universal degree that is MBA, which will help me to uplift my ~~career~~ career according to that I started searching and the USA universities attracted my eyes. So after fulfilling all the requirements, I applied for the ~~the~~ present 2024 Intake

why your
