GrAP - 2023.

(Refused)

+2 Non-Med.

to Bachelor of Comp. Engineering.

After completing my senior secondary education in 2023, I developed a deep interest in Computer Engineering. I became curious about how technologies like artificial intelligence, data science, and software development drive innovation and help businesses make better decisions. To gain knowledge, I started exploring programming languages like Python, C++, and Java, along with concepts in machine learning, data structures, and algorithms through online resources and self-study. While learning, I realized the vast potential of computer engineering in sectors like business, healthcare, and finance. This inspired me to pursue higher education in the USA, a country known for its advancements in technology and research. Unfortunately, my first application was refused, but I used this time to enhance my technical skills. Now, I have reapplied for the present intake.
