I completed my bachelor's in the year 20 which was badly affected by COVID-19 and all the ~~businesses~~ businesses and events were shut. But when the situation got stabled many companies launched the products, schemes or agendas ~~to~~ ^{in the} market to ^{maintain} stability of profits in their business. So, i started doing freelancing at that high time in which i served as a event planner and used to manage overall activities of product or scheme launching ~~events~~ events. While, doing this for long time made me interested in opening my own event management company in which i am going to use my technical skills to pitch the customers by explaining my ~~activities~~ plan or theme by using AI. But to made myself well verse in ^{business} skills i choose MBA further from USA.

FUTURE - GOAL

As per my intrest and experience i want to open my own event management company with the usage of latest technologies like AI and this will also help me to create employment in both business and technical sector. I am sure that with the combination of both business and technical skill i will able to do something tremendous.
