(Khushi) Shavandeep Kaur (2023) (+ 2 Med. to Nursing)
GAP.

I have always aspired to work in the healthcare industry. After I completed my studies in 2023, I researched the key areas to focus on. I came across reports and surveys conducted by the healthcare team, which revealed that many young people, especially teenagers, struggle with obesity. Additionally, I learned that obesity can be linked to emotional and psychological factors. Nurses specializing in mental health can provide assistance in treating patients with binge eating disorder or emotional eating habits. This made My mind to become a public health nurse, so I applied for the Bachelor of Nursing program in the USA and received my I20 for the upcoming 2025 intake.
