

I am Jasvinder Singh. I belong to Haryana, India. I completed my Matriculation in 2012 from the Board of School Education Haryana. My Senior Secondary was also from the same Board in 2014 then diploma in Mechanical Engineering in 2016. For my further studies I have decided to apply for Bachelors of Business Administration in Lincoln university of USA. This course will help me learn the Business skills to fulfill my dream of establishing a business start up, or a new enterprise. But for having a better career, quality education is required. Which I believe that only the USA can provide for me. This made me choose Lincoln university, California in Usa for my higher studies.

The good life in the United States has always inspired me, so I decided to continue my education in the United States. The USA was my first choice because it is one of the best universities and its courses are unique. With advancements in various industries, they have one of the best courses for business management and management education. School-based employment programs help students support themselves financially. The classroom environment is dynamic and helps students develop their whole personality. Interuniversity programs prepare students for employment and a good income. Additionally, skills, management and financial planning are also part of the curriculum and contribute to students' development. The school's multicultural environment creates a welcoming environment for students to easily socialize and learn new social skills.

I researched many colleges and universities and found Lincoln university to be my dream. As we all know, California is the most vibrant city in the world. It is known as the world's largest economic, cultural and financial center. I believe that studying at your school will give me knowledge and skills in my job. It is also known for providing practical and affordable education to students. The skills, training and internships provided by the course can support students' overall development and help them find suitable jobs in the global market. I believe that studying BBA at Lincoln university will help establish a foundation in this field.

I decided to pursue a BBA program as it happens to be the most logical path that would help me translate my dream of becoming a successful businessperson to reality. Since a BBA degree is a combination of practical and theoretical subjects, the training students receive while pursuing this degree helps them build careers in multiple industries. The curriculum of a BBA program is designed to provide students with valuable skills like problem solving, decision making and managerial skills. It is a globally recognized degree which can help to attract international job opportunities in MNC's which can lead to international market exposure. It is also a foundation for an MBA degree which can give me an edge over other professionals in the industry as I will already have the advanced skills and industry exposure that comes with a BBA degree. I decided to opt for this course as it would help me to achieve my goal of becoming an entrepreneur.

I hope you will consider my application and get me admitted to your prestigious university.
