After completing my 12th grade in commerce, I took a time to gain valuable experience in management and fundraising through assisting in planning and executing various community projects, which taught me critical skills in teamwork and leadership. We as a group collaborated with diverse groups of people, which enhanced my ability to communicate effectively and coordinate efforts toward common goals. This experience not only strengthened my organizational skills but also deepened my understanding of how effective management can drive positive change. I realized the importance of strategic planning and resource allocation, which sparked my interest in pursuing a BBA. I am excited to build on these skills and apply them in a formal academic setting.
