* Gap justification?

[After completing my BSc Radiology, I joined a group focused on the critical role of medical equipment in remote areas.] I witnessed first hand challenges faced by communities with limited access to essential diagnostic tools, leading to delayed diagnoses and poor health outcomes. This experience ignited my passion for improving healthcare access in underserved communities. [I realized that establishing a chain of medical imaging centres could bridge the gap between high quality diagnostic services and these communities.] I aim to combine my radiology background with further studies in healthcare analytics. [By leveraging data-driven insights, I can identify trends, optimize resource allocation, and enhance the operational
