

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

I want to submit my personal essay in support of my application to your esteemed university for MBA Program from United States of America.

I have completed my senior secondary in 2007 and my high school in 2009 from Punjab School Education Board. After that I completed my Bachelor of Arts from Guru Nanak Dev University, Gurdaspur in 2012, Side by side I did my Masters in Punjabi from from Guru Nanak Dev University in 2014. Talking about my academics, I attained a GPA of 2.5 and always performed well throughout my college.

After completion of my Master's degree I thought of expanding my current knowledge with an international degree and so that I can make my career in the near future and thought of continuing my master's degree from top developed countries USA

With great interest to study abroad, I did my own online personal research about US Universities which offers Masters of Business program .I decided to study at Lincoln University in California which matches my admission requirements. I planned to pursue Masters from United States of America as it is the number one study destination for international students around the globe. This is the one nation where every individual wish to study to gain advance techniques and skills. I will be more than happy to acquire higher degree from such a country which has been my childhood dream destination. US Universities has a full-fledged facilities and technologies to offer it to the international students with extra ordinary experienced staff. After gaining a master degree from United States, I will become a polished individual and it will improve my career ability.

Master of Business Administration is a program which will equip me with the sufficient knowledge of Management and organizing things in a better way. Adding a MBA degree to my profile will open up doors of growth for me in the Business World. I will be able to increase my management, critical thinking and analytical skills. The degree will have a direct positive impact on my career ahead.

I have chosen Lincoln University drawn to its global research approach to higher education.

Situated in the vibrant city of Oakland and also prepare the students through different facilities and programs with advance techniques. The university is also known for its strong academic programs, its commitment to diversity and vibrant campus life. University is known for its Business Programs, so after acquiring a business degree, I can get my desired job at a good post back in my hometown.

I hope you will consider my application at your esteemed university and will get an opportunity to study at prestigious university.

Thanks and Regards,
