LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I write this letter of recommendation for Pawandeep Kaur. I have known her for the last two years and have taught her English in Class XI and XII.

A methodical approach and the will to excel have always earned her good marks and she has been good in her academics. The faculty members have always appreciated her for her respectful polite and amiable nature. She shares a wonderful rapport with all her friends and elders. She has the knack of understanding and learning from people and is adaptable to different situations.

Her communication skills both written, and verbal are superior. She has good command on the languages. I find in her the ability to convince the listener about her point of view. I find Pawandeep Kaur to be easily accepted by group members. There have been occasions when she has made startling observations and her ability to correlate huge quantities of information and discern the underlying trends is indicative of her vision.

I am sure she can perform much better in a motivated environment. She is good natured, humble, fun loving, likable, enthusiastic and trustworthy.

I am happy to hear that she wishes to pursue undergraduate studies from your esteemed university. I wish her all the success for her endeavours.
