

Letter of recommendation for Mr. Nirlesh Kohli

It gives me an immense pleasure to talk about Mr. Nirlesh Kohli on the personal and academic endeavors as his professor at Punjabi University, Patiala, India.

I have known Nirlesh Kohli as his professor since September 2021 when he joined Punjabi University in the undergraduate program in chemistry honors. As his professor for courses and practical activities, I found him very enthusiastic, and he is amongst good students in his class in terms of intelligence, presentation, and motivation as well as his aptitude in debate and problem solving. Not only is he sincere in doing the assignments and attending the lectures, but he is also keen to learn about new things and projects.

Besides doing his coursework and projects diligently, Nirlesh enthusiastically involved himself in extracurricular accomplishments and social activities and also carried out the responsibility of being the class representative for a year. Nirlesh's ability to grasp new concepts is fantastic, he made efforts to familiarize himself with complex things of the course. I have found him a motivated person with good communication and interpersonal skills. I have always found him pleasant to work with and completely trustworthy.

I am delighted to know that he is motivated to apply for his master's in education in a highly reputed university. I am confident he will not only excel in the program but also prove to be just as desirable an asset to the peers and program as he was for us. I recommend him with full confidence for the program with full scholarship. Should you need any further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Manisha
