After completing my senior secondary education in 2023, I carefully considered my academic and career direction. During this time, I engaged myself in personal development activities that honed my critical thinking and leadership skills. This period helped me realize my passion for business and solidified my decision to transition from arts to business studies. I believe my creative background, combined with my newfound interest in business, will enable me to bring a unique and valuable perspective to my studies and future career. With this in mind, I applied for the <sup>December 2024</sup> 2023 intake; however, my visa was refused, prompting me to apply for the next available intake.
