I have been asked by Harshpreet Kaur to write her letter of recommendation to complement her application for her further studies. I have known her in the capacity of Business Studies teacher. I am glad to know that she has chosen a best suited career for herself.

She is bright, energetic, compassionate and genuinely well rounded. Her grades have been consistently an average in all of her courses. She is very serious and earnest in her studies. Her enthusiasm, compared with her unblemished character, set her apart from the rest of the class. She has impressed me particularly by her practical skills and also problem solving capacity.

She has been best in her group discussion and role-play exercise in her course study of Business Studies. From our discussion concerning her plans, I could conclude that she has a strong motivation towards academic. I strongly recommend her for further studies.

My sincerest wishes are with her and I believe with all these qualities and her perseverance towards her goals, she'll emerge as an efficient and effective candidate.
