Congratulations, Arshdeep!

On behalf of President Steven H. Kaplan and our family of nearly 60,000 alumni, I am delighted to inform you that you have been accepted into our Electrical Engineering, MS program for the Spring 2023 term.

At the University of New Haven, we are confident you will have an exceptional graduate experience and will build a strong network necessary for success in today's highly competitive world. Our rigorous academic programs and dedicated faculty will assist you in fulfilling your career goals and will set you on the path to professional growth.

We are guided by the following core values as they are the foundational elements of our culture and how we approach issues and make decisions essential to advancing the University of New Haven Mission.

- Student Centered: We place their success at the center of our decisions and activities to cultivate their full potential academically and personally.
- Engaged and Inclusive Community: We foster and celebrate diversity, inclusion, equity and access and strive for continuous improvement of these.
- Impactful Education: We intentionally engage our students in experiential education to prepare them for purposeful and fulfilling lives in a global society.

To begin the process of enrolling at the University of New Haven, please complete your offer reply form within your Accepted Student Portal by November 25, 2022. Once you have received your F-1 visa (passport stamped by the US Embassy), you will need to pay an enrollment deposit of $300 to ensure your seat is confirmed for your program. The enrollment deposit is $300 for students living off campus or $500 for students looking for on-campus residential housing. An enrollment deposit is required for all graduate students who decide to attend the University of New Haven. Your acceptance is contingent upon the receipt of all final official documents and official test scores, if applicable.

We look forward to you joining our community and wish you every success in the future.

Sincerely,
