Growing up, I was always fascinated by the automobile sector, often captivated by shows that ignited my curiosity and desire to learn more. With my father owning an automotive business, I gained early exposure to the industry and its intricacies. After completing my senior secondary education in 2023, I made a deliberate decision to deepen my understanding of this field. I actively attended various automotive ^{exhibition} expos and workshops, some hosted at our workshop. Accompanying my father to these events allowed me to network with industry professionals and gain insights into the latest trends in technology and sustainability within the automobile sector. This hands-on experience not only enhanced my knowledge but also reinforced my passion for the industry. I devised a plan to incorporate and implement digital tools and platforms for sales, marketing, and customer engagement, ultimately driving innovation and growth within the automotive business.)
