Cyber security
Aman Kumar

Understanding the rising cyber threats and data breaches in IT MNCs, I spent my gap year analyzing how private data corruption affects businesses. I also attended various cyber-security events, where I learned about corporate data leaks, ransomware attacks, and insider threats. While exploring real-world cases, I realized the importance of cyber laws and compliance regulations in safeguarding sensitive corporate information. To tackle these challenges, I chose to pursue a Master's in Cyber-security from USA for the present 2025 intake.
