While planning my academic and career journey after completing my studies in 2024, I took the time to thoroughly research and compare study destinations to make the best decision. Since I was born in Dubai, my initial thought was to pursue higher education there. However, after exploring various universities and programs, I realized that the USA is a global leader in business education, offering world-class universities, industry exposure, and strong networking opportunities. The practical learning approach and internationally recognized MBA programs in the USA made it the ideal choice for my career growth, leading me to apply for the 2025 intake.
