manufacturing business, focusing on cost management, pricing strategies and supply chain optimization. Through market research and data analysis, I found areas where we could improve and tried new ideas like demand forecasting and better resource use. While these efforts helped, I realized I needed more knowledge in economics to make better decisions and achieve long-term growth. Motivated by this, I prepared for the Jelts, scoring 6.5 bands, and applied for a degree in Economics in the USA for the 2025 intake. This program will equip me with the expertise to optimize our operations and set a benchmark for economic innovation in the automobiles industry.

Que → What is the source of your sponsorship?

Ans → My father is funding my education with the help of his past savings, amounting to ₹ 35 lacs. He has been a successful business owner for over 20 years, managing a manufacturing unit that produces spare parts used in automobiles. Additionally, he holds distributorships for key automobile components, including batteries, alternators, starter motors, fuses, headlights and tail lights, among others. His business has established strong partnerships with various repair workshops, which contributes to an annual income of ₹ 23-24 lakhs. Furthermore, we also own agricultural land worth ₹ 1 acre.
