Growing up in a business family, I developed a natural interest in entrepreneurship. After completing my 12th in 2020, I took some time off from studies to support my family's handloom business. I actively handled customer communication and engaged with weavers, textile mills, and boutique designers, gaining firsthand experience in market dynamics. Working closely in this niche industry enhanced my problem-solving and management skills, giving me a deeper understanding of business operations. Through this, I made my decision to pursue a BBA from the USA.
