Bachelor of Economics.

"During my one-year gap, I took the opportunity to explore the challenges faced by small startups, such as financial instability and a lack of proper guidance. Through my research, I understood how economic principles and strategic planning can help create sustainable growth models for these businesses. This inspired me to pursue a Bachelor of Economics to gain expertise in areas like microeconomics, financial markets, and economic development. I believe this program will help me develop practical solutions for empowering small businesses to fulfil my goals. I decided to do my bachelor's from USA and applied for the present 2025 intake.
