~~16/01/2025~~
16/01/2025

After completing my studies in 2021, I paused academics to assist my elder brother with his startup, which aimed to address widespread hair care issues like hair fall and greying. Recognizing the growing demand for natural, sustainable solutions, I contributed to developing hair oils, serums, and sprays, using eco-friendly ingredients sourced from our agricultural fields. While working on these formulations, I gained insight into the importance of combining traditional remedies with modern scientific advancements. This inspired me to pursue a Bachelor's in Chemistry to deepen my knowledge. I chose the USA for my higher studies and successfully applied for the 2025 intake, securing my I-20.
