2022 ←

I come from a family where agriculture is the backbone of our livelihood. After completing my BA, I joined my father in managing our agricultural business, which focuses on sugarcane farming. We cultivate and export sugarcane to various industries, including food and beverages, pharmaceuticals, ~~clothes~~, and confectionery, where sugarcane is used to make sugar, syrups, juices, medicines, ~~and even bioenergy products~~. As I worked with my father, I realized our business had great growth potential. Instead of just exporting sugarcane, I saw an opportunity to set up a processing unit and create sugarcane-based products under our brand. This could help us capture a larger market share and take our business to the next level. I understood that I needed solid business knowledge to make this vision a reality. That's why I decided to pursue an MBA in the USA, for the present 2025 intake.
