Yogesh

I completed my senior secondary education in 2018, and during this time, I discovered my true passion for powerlifting. I dedicated myself to this sport and competed at various levels, winning several medals, including gold, silver, and bronze. While my achievements brought me immense satisfaction, I also realized the challenges within the field, such as intense competition and poor management of the sport's infrastructure. These issues made me reflect on the broader picture and inspired me to make a meaningful difference. I decided to pursue higher education to develop international business skills that I could use to improve the management and infrastructure of powerlifting and sports in general in my country. With this goal in mind, I applied for the present intake, aiming to acquire the knowledge and expertise needed to bring about positive change.

- ★ After my previous education, I dedicated my self in sport of powerlifting and competed at various levels and also I saw some challenges in the field like poor management of the infrastructure.
- ★ After completing my previous education, I committed myself to the sport of powerlifting and participated in competitions at different levels. Additionally, I encountered certain challenges in this field, such as inadequate management of the infrastructure. In order to tackle this problem, I chose to continue my education in management from USA.
