Master's in IT project Management
Jobanpruit
(Name)

With a strong interest in how technology drives business success, after my bachelor's in 2024, I explored CRM systems to understand their impact on operations. By assisting small businesses, I helped implement CRM solutions that streamlined customer interactions and boosted client satisfaction. This highlighted the critical role of strategic planning and effective project management in ensuring successful CRM implementation. Understanding the importance of managing such projects, I decided to pursue a Master's in IT Project Management to gain the necessary expertise to lead and manage tech-driven projects efficiently.
