INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CERTIFICATION

* 1. In order to study in the United States as an international student, you must document that you have sufficient financial resources to complete your course of study. You must prove that you have enough funds to cover all the costs associated with your first year of full-time study. Each CSU campus determines the typical costs for international students. This budget includes registration fees, housing, books, other living expenses and miscellaneous costs.

As an international student you will need to have your financial institution provide a certification that you have at least the amount required available, or that funds are available from a reliable source. International students should not expect to work to cover the cost of their education in the United States.

Federal/state financial aid is not available for international students. Campus or private scholarships may be available for international students but are not sufficient to cover all expenses.

We require a bank statement from international students to ensure they have sufficient financial resources to cover tuition, living expenses, and other costs while studying in the U.S. This is a standard requirement for student visa applicants, as proof of financial stability is necessary for the visa process and compliance with U.S. immigration regulations. It helps demonstrate that students can successfully complete their studies without financial hardship.

Bank Statement Requirement:

Undergraduate: A minimum balance of $25,000

Graduate: A minimum balance of $27,000

The statement can be in your local currency but must be dated within the last six months from the application date.

32. Do you have a financial sponsor?*

Yes

33. If you have a financial sponsor, please download and complete the required sponsorship document. However, if the bank statement is under your name, there is no need to fill out this form.
