Naveet
~~(Handwritten)~~ Heerleen

To expand our wooden furnishing business to a larger scale, I focused on modernizing operations and diversifying our product range. Recognizing the growing demand for customized and sustainable furniture, I introduced modular designs that cater to contemporary tastes. Additionally, I worked on building an online presence by launching a digital platform to showcase our products, attract a wider customer base, and facilitate direct orders. I also explored collaborations with interior designers and real estate developers to secure bulk orders for residential and commercial projects. By improving supply chain management and integrating digital marketing strategies, I aimed to position our business as a competitive brand in the furnishing industry. This experience motivated me to pursue an MBA, as I realized the need for advanced business knowledge to scale operations effectively and drive long-term growth.
