GAP Justification.

Since completing my studies in 2021, I have been working as an HR Executive at XYZ company, where I gained a wealth of knowledge and hands-on experience. However, I noticed that my career growth was being limited by a lack of advanced education and international exposure. To overcome these challenges and establish a distinctive identity in the professional world, I decided to pursue higher education in the USA. This decision reflects my determination to learn, grow, and unlock opportunities that will allow me to reach my highest potential. This is why I have applied for the 2025 intake in the USA to do MBA as it will provide me with the advanced knowledge and global exposure required to reach my full potential.
