

Statement of Purpose

I, Sukhpreet Singh Jaswal, am an Indian from Haryana. My educational background includes matriculation in 2017 from the Central Board of Secondary Education, graduating from senior secondary school from the same Board in 2019, earning a bachelor's degree from Guru Nanak Dev University in 2024, and intending to apply for an international master's degree from the United States. I went with the United States since it has the largest network of institutions and colleges worldwide and is the most popular destination for international students. We are all aware of the high caliber of education in the USA, its distinctive curriculum, and the wealth of job options available to international students. Top-ranked US institutions provide a broad selection of programs and fields of study, along with additional advantages including the opportunity to engage with people from different cultural backgrounds. I will be able to overcome the difficulties of living abroad, enjoy different cultures, pick up a new language, and have a deeper understanding of the world by studying in America. It has some of the world's top universities, is a leader in research and technology, and offers students the chance to receive scholarships. I did a lot of research before deciding on Lincoln University. This university, which is among the top in the US, accepts students from throughout the world. By promoting a sense of peace, harmony, and solidarity founded on respect and trust, universities provide us all a sense of society duty that forces us to pay attention, pick up new skills, and alter the way we do things and endeavor. The university is renowned for making a big difference in the lives of its students. It distinguishes itself as a top university by its general development and individual counseling. Being around people from other cultures outside of the classroom and private schooling will also help me learn new things and strengthen my skills. I Chose MBA Program .The demand for highly qualified experts in the field of MBA is always growing. There are many different employment options in the business thanks to this flexible degree program. It is considered to be the most popular course of study. Accounts, economics, finance, marketing, and other topics will be among the things I study. Leadership, managerial, business, decision-making, and problem-solving abilities are among the talents I will be learning. Additionally, there are many choices in my industry, which will enable me to work with reputable MNCs. In the working world, it will also help me expand my horizons and acquire advanced research skills and information. I intend to return my home country after completing the course, As I will be able to secure prestigious positions in India's public or private sectors, either starting my own business or working for reputable organizations in fields like finance, operations, human resources, etc. I hope you will give me an opportunity to be a part of your renowned University.
