Sweety B.A (Fashion) to MBA GAP - 2021

My journey in fashion started after I finished my BA in 2021. I began by designing custom outfits that many clients loved. Working directly with clients taught me about different fabrics, design details, and what people prefer today. Teaming up with experienced professionals also showed me how important it is to understand the business side of fashion. I realized that creativity alone isn't enough in this competitive field. That's why I decided to pursue an MBA in the USA—to gain the business and leadership skills I need to grow my ideas globally. I'm really excited to join the 2025 intake and take the next step in my journey
