BA → MBA (Sumit)
(2024)

After earning my bachelor's in 2024 with public administration as a major, I explored the link between governance and workforce management. Studying HR's role in policy implementation, leadership, and efficiency reinforced my belief that administration isn't just about policies—it's about managing people to drive change. To deepen my expertise, I have applied for an MBA to build a strong business foundation, planning to specialize in Human Resources in my second semester. By integrating public administration with HR, I aim to enhance organizational efficiency and create a lasting impact.
