Hardibag Kaur - GAP 2021
[Bachelor of Maths to MBA]

"When I started freelancing as a tutor in 2021, I didn't see it as a business—just a way to help students. But as demand grew, I saw an opportunity to turn it into something bigger. However, I quickly realized that running an academy wasn't just about teaching—it involved financial planning, student retention, branding, and technology integration. I made mistakes, learned from them, and understood that I needed formal business education to succeed. That's why I chose to pursue an MBA in the USA—to gain expertise in business management, leadership, and financial sustainability, which will help me create a more structured and scalable academy back in India."
