GAP - 2024

Dineshbhar Thakur + 2 Non-Med.
to Computer Sci.

Looking back, I never imagined that observing inefficiencies in local businesses would shape my career aspirations. Whether it was inventory mismanagement or customer records getting lost, I saw firsthand how manual processes led to costly errors. As I explored automation and AI, I realized the power of technology in solving these issues. But I also understood that self-learning had its limits. To truly create impactful business solutions, I needed formal education. That's why I applied for a Bachelor's in Computer Science in the USA—to gain the expertise necessary to integrate technology into business and drive transformation
