

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

I am Ekamjot Singh, born on 19/10/2007. My parents, Sinderpal singh and Manpreet kaur raised me In Tehsil Dhuri at sangrur, Punjab, India ,(PIN: 148025). I describe myself as decent, genuine and goal oriented

Academics

I have applied for Bachelor of Arts (B.A) in Business Administration at Lincoln University located at Oakland, California which connects with my earlier studies. I finished my Grade 12 at GT B Public school Bardwal Dhuri sangrur in 2025 under the CBSE Board and later I completed my 10th Grade under the same Board in 2023. I decided to pursue Bachelor of Business Administration(B.A) from the esteemed university. This Program will equip me with essential skills in marketing, accounting and management

Additionally it offers strategic insights into business interactions with society & the environment , fostering legal and ethical issues

Considering my interest, I Decided to go for USA . I Searched the value of United States of American Education on the international grounds. USA is one of the top destination for International students. I decided to study in USA Because of its cultural diversity, friendly natives and high quality of education It provides research based education and a learning style that encourages students to be innovative , creative and think independently

Why Lincoln University..

I have chosen Lincoln university , USA , Drawn to its innovative and global approach to higher studies I strongly believe that BBA course at Lincoln University located at Oakland in California will provide me with practical experience, training and internship and overall knowledge which will help me in gaining a lot and learning under expert team members. Lincoln University also plays an important role in student life. LU takes care of its quality of education, citizenship, personal guidance and overall development.

After having careful research and consideration, I decided to study at your esteemed university which is one of my best choices I have ever made.

I hope you will consider my application and get an opportunity to study under prestigious university.

Thanks & Regards,

Ekamjot singh
