Sourabh

It a few years preparing for UPSC exam because it was something my father really wished for. I gave it my best & even appeared twice, but due to physical limitation of my hand, I couldn't succeed. During this period, I began researching about global education opportunities & realized how studying abroad especially an MBA in the USA could give me both exposure & a better platform to grow professionally. I discussed it with my father & finally got his support. That's when I decided to take this new direction and apply for higher education in the USA.
