By submitting this application, I certify that the information is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. Falsification or omission of information on this application can jeopardize acceptance and enrollment. I authorize any schools or colleges I have previously attended to release personal and academic information to Indiana Tech.

Indiana Tech does not discriminate against employees, students, or applicants on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, veteran status, national origin, religion or political affiliation.

When a student registers for classes, they enter into an agreement with Indiana Tech and assume full financial responsibility for all charges and fees assessed to their student account regardless of who pays the bill on the student's behalf for the length of the student's attendance at this institution. The student is also agreeing to automated text, email, and voice communication from Indiana Tech. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of their account balance, financial aid information, University policies, and important deadlines or dates. In the event a student account becomes past due, Indiana Tech may assess appropriate late fees. Indiana Tech also reserves the right to report delinquent student accounts to a collection agency to seek restitution. Furthermore, in the event Indiana Tech incurs any fees collecting on a student account the student is responsible for paying all collection fees and student will be assessed a 1.5% late charge per month at 18% per year on the past due balance. This includes, but is not limited to, collection agency fees, court costs, and/or any attorney fees. The student understands Indiana Tech will release financial information about the student account to those involved with collecting the balance due.

Tuition Policy Force Majeure Events

Indiana Tech may terminate or temporarily suspend performance of any part of this Contract, without notice, in the event Indiana Tech's obligations and/or duties under this Contract are prevented or delayed, either directly or indirectly, by consequence of a Force Majeure Event. A Force Majeure Event means a cause or event beyond the reasonable control of Indiana Tech, including, but not limited to, an act of God, natural disaster, act of war, act of terrorism, or act of the public enemy; national emergency, moratorium, riot, public protest, or demonstration; flood, tidal wave, fire, explosion, bomb detonation, nuclear fallout, windstorm, tornado, hurricane, sinkhole, earthquake, or other casualty, disaster, or catastrophe; epidemic, pandemic or other infectious disease, or other similar causes; any existing or future laws or acts of the Federal or any state government (including specifically, but not exclusively, any orders, rules or regulations issued by any official or agency of any such government) resulting in a complete or partial shutdown; or any other cause or causes (whether or not similar in nature to any of those specified above) beyond Indiana Tech's reasonable control, irrespective of whether such contingency is specified herein or is presently occurring or anticipated.

In the case of a Force Majeure event, Indiana Tech reserves the right to determine how and by what method educational instruction will be provided to the student. Educational instruction may be provided through methods consistent with Indiana Tech's philosophy, as practicable under the circumstances, and at locations removed from the regular instructional rooms or buildings, including virtual instruction. Indiana Tech assumes no responsibility or liability for failure to perform any terms or conditions of this Contract due to circumstances beyond its control. No refund, recompense, or compensation is provided for tuition of fees and/or financial aid in the event Indiana Tech must change its method of instruction, suspend or close due to a Force Majeure Event, nor retribution for discomfort. Indiana Tech shall not be responsible for any failure to provide educational programs or instruction in the event Force Majeure conditions exist. In such event, Indiana Tech shall not be obligated to refund any amount the student already paid pursuant to the Contract. Nothing in this Contract shall be construed to relieve the student of his/her payment obligations under this Contract, or waive any right or claim of Indiana Tech for payment under the terms of this Contract.
