

I am Supinder Kaur, a resident of Sangrur, Punjab, India. I completed my Matriculation and Senior Secondary Education from the Punjab School Education Board in 2006 and 2008 respectively. I did a Bachelor of Arts from Government College for Women during the session 2008-11 and Bachelors of Education from Shri Guru Teg Bahadur College of Education during the session 2011-12.

I have decided to move to the USA for my higher education. It is believed that world's finest education is available in United States of America. A degree from US is accepted across the world and is considered to be among the most prestigious. Apart from what is taught in the classroom, International students also get to interact with and learn from other students from many different countries and diverse religions, cultures, economic and ethnic backgrounds. This experience can be eye-opening for me and help me to become more confident and independent in my respective field. So, all these reasons fascinated me to select this country. The opportunity to apply knowledge and skills to real-world situations, and academic and student support services, quality faculty and staff focusing on student growth and knowledge, critical inquiry, and innovative thinking are some of the best parts here.

USA has a good number of universities to choose from. After an in-depth research I have selected my dream college Murray State University, USA. With a top-notch faculty and infrastructure it is one of the best universities to offer Masters of Public Administration in the States. The university is known for its essence and ethos. The campus, faculty and opportunities offered are a great motivation for me to get enrolled here. Along with in classroom and subject centred learning, staying with people from different cultural backgrounds will help me gain knowledge and develop analytical skills too. The curriculum and traditions followed are comprehensive, value centered learning experience emphasizing on faith, leadership, inclusiveness and personal development.

To advance in numerous public assistance professions, it is important to develop and hone managerial and leadership skills. A Master's degree Public Administration is perfect for this. Concentrating on Public Organization at the postgraduate level offers you an incredible chance to construct an organization of companions with an extensive variety of involvement. Numerous understudies coming into a MPA software engineer will be at present working in open area jobs and I will likewise have admittance to an incredible organization of experts with changing degrees of experience inside my picked field. Policy implementation concentrates on center around issues like public assets, responsibility, and the portrayal, examination, arrangements and amalgamation of contemporary administration issues in criminal equity offices. Policy implementation professions likewise exist at each degree of government. Hence I am confident that I will have a promising career in my chosen field.
